

Isabell and the Fairies

Author: Abigail Murphy

Age: 8 Ms. Conaty's Class

ON a warm summer morning a girl called Isabell was walking through the Phoenix Park with her friends, smiling at all the deer. They were having so much fun and they sat down and had an ice-cream in the sun. It was July and they were all on their summer holidays, which made them all very happy. Suddenly it went very dark, the sky got darker and a strong wind came with a flashing light. All the girls were so shocked as they looked up and saw five magical fairies, all the same colour as the rainbow. There was a red fairy, an orange fairy, a yellow fairy, a green fairy and a blue fairy. The fairies sprinkled magical pink dust down on Isabell, which made her spin round and lift off the ground. Isabell got very scared and worried as she didn't know what was happening to her. Her friends got scared too and ran away because they didn't want the same thing to happen to them.

As the fairies flew in a circle around Isabell they told Isabell not to worry because she could fly just like them. They were nice fairies and wanted to play with Isabell and they didn't mean to scare her. They told Isabell that they would let her be the leader of them all in the sky. They all held on tightly to Isabell as they took off flying over Dublin city high in the sky. They flew over the city, over the Spire and even over Croke Park. As they flew they sprinkled green, white and orange dust all over as if it were St. Patrick's Day. The city and people were covered in the magical fairy dust. Once the white dust landed, it turned into potatoes and the green dust turned into noodles. The orange dust just sparkled on the ground. The fairies were having so much fun that they forgot they had taken Isabell with them.

Then things started to go wrong. Isabell fell behind the group of flying fairies and crashed into everything because her powers were running out. She lost the group of fairies and she wanted to get back to her friends in the Phoenix Park. She started to fall slowly, spinning around and around. She was so scared she closed her eyes. She landed on something soft and opened her eyes. She had fallen onto a bouncing castle in the Phoenix Park. Her friends ran over and were happy to see her safe again. Isabell had lots of fun, but she decided she didn't want to fly with the fairies ever again.

Haunted House

Author: Alice O'Brien

Age: 8 Ms. Conaty's Class

ONCE upon a time there was a doll called Bella. She lived in a haunted house. The house was in the woods beside a small village in the country. The house was empty for a long time and then a family decided to move in. In the family were a mum and dad and their two daughters. The daughters were twins and were eight years old.

Shortly after the family moved in they discovered unusual things happening in the house. Bella was also surprised and disappointed that four people had taken over her space. She had enjoyed playing with her friends and their toys. Now Bella felt that she had to hide away in case any of the new family saw her.

At this stage she realised that she had to make friends with the family so that's what she did. Instantly she ran to their rooms. After a while they all became friends. They all played together. The next morning Bella made breakfast. The family came down stairs to have a lovely breakfast.

The Invisible Prankster

Author: Alicia O'Brien

Age: 9 Ms. Conaty's Class

ONCE there was an Invisible Prankster. She was 32 years old. She was an evil Invisible Prankster, but only in the evening time. She didn't like children and if any child interfered with her property she would go crazy. She had been pranking for two years now. She had a special potion to turn herself invisible. She made a special potion two years ago and she wanted to try it out to see what it did. Her real name was Rosey -Mae.

One of the evenings when she drank the potion she became the Funny Prankster instead of the Invisible Prankster. She did not like that idea of being a funny prankster. The potion only lasted three hours. One evening she was out pranking as she always was. She had 50 cups and 10 bags of water bottles. There was 1 litre in each bottle. She put all of the cups in front of the door of one of the houses and she put water in each one of them. So when the woman who owned the house tried to go somewhere, she was trapped in her house. The prank took 1 hour to set up and 1 hour to wait and see the prank happen. It was so funny for the Invisible Prankster.

The woman was so mad she shouted, "Who did this?... it is not funny."

"Yes it is," said the Invisible Prankster who was hiding behind the garden wall.

"Who said that, I wonder?" asked the woman.

The Invisible Prankster started at 7pm and was out each Friday night till 10pm. She often went to the shopping centre. One night she went to the centre at 9pm to do more pranking. She only had 1 hour left to do some more pranking.

"I only have one hour left. Oh no!" said Rosey -Mae. "Let's do some more pranking," Rosey -Mae said to herself. She was walking into the centre and she was tipping people on their shoulders. She was tipping people for 1 hour now. The potion was wearing off at this point, but she didn't know because she was having too much fun. At this point she was leaving the shopping centre. As she was leaving she was throwing pies at people's cars. The Garda saw her throwing pies at people's cars.

"Come with me please," said the Garda.

"Where are we going?" asked Rosey-Mae.

"To the Garda Station," answered the Garda.

"WHAT DID I DO?" shouted Rosey-Mae.

"You are an Evil Prankster and that is not allowed in this town," said the Garda.

"Oh, sorry about that, but I have been pranking for two years now in case you didn't know," said Rosey -Mae. "Can you please, please, please let me go?" begged Rosey-Mae.

"No, I am sorry but you must go to court," said the Garda.

"AHH Man!" said Rosey-Mae.

The next day they were on their way to court. Rosey-Mae was talking to the Judge for a long, long time and finally they came to a decision.

"Rosey-Mae, you are going to Jail for 7 days," said the Judge.

"Ok, that is not too bad," said Rosey-Mae.

Seven days later Rosey-Mae was so, so, so happy that she was leaving prison because she was the youngest person in jail. She promised that she would never prank again.

WILL SHE KEEP THAT PROMISE?